

Bruce's Dream by TJ

There was Bruce. He was with his parents at the theatre until they were attacked on the way home. Bruce ran. He heard a loud noise and realised that they were now lifeless corpses. Bruce gets adopted one week later on his fifth birthday by Alfred the butler.

Bruce wants to avenge his parents' death and dreamt of becoming a superhero.

Twenty years later he is fighting crime in the streets. He goes by the name of Batman.