

My Dreams: Chloe the Jazz singer

One day, in the future I will arrive at the airport and I am going to fly a jumbo jet with mummy to New York. Mummy and I will land in New York and go to a cafe to get some delicious drinks. We will set off to go to the dress shop. This dress shop is famous because it had a lot of good dresses. We will walk into the huge dress shop to see the most beautiful, elegant, wonderful and sparkly dress and Mummy is going to pay for the dress for me. After the shop I and mummy will go to the concert hall to get ready for my jazz singing. The concert hall will be huge and have a lots of lights. I will be felling nervous because of the light and the audience. But I will sing beautifully and then the crowd will cheer as loud as the cats. I will feel proud of myself because I will have sung a jazz song in front of the small audience. Next, I will be a famous jazz singer. People will cheer when I sing a slow jazz song. As a famous jazz singer I will travel all around the world. I will perform in Spain, France and Australia. I will get one rose from the crowds of people and that will make me feel happy but also crying. I will have finished with my dream and I am the most talented jazz singer in the world.
