

The story of Covid-19

There was once a virus called Covid-19 or coronavirus for his proper name he was very lonely and no one wanted him as a friend because he kept accidentally infectiong everyone. So one day he met someone called Bob and he wanted to be friends with Covid so he and Bob got ice cream but what Bob didn't know that was Covid accidently was on his ice cream and he ate Covid! He was really panicking so he tried turning upside down but that didn't work so he tried burping but still Covid was still stuck inside Bob's belly. He didn't know what to do so he asked his mum what do do and she said wash your hands before every meal and once you finished going to the toilet and cough and sneeze into your elbow so he did everything his mum told him to do and Covid came out. Covid wasn't happy and Bob said he was sorry and Covid forgived him and they all lived together happily.
