

Was it a dream or not? By LG

Crunch, crunch, crunch, crunch.... Sophie pulled down her bed covers and steps out of bed to investigate the noise. There in the dark corner she see the bunny crawling of the corner of the dresser leaving chewed carrots behind. He disappeared.

Sophie followed and found his eye in the corridor outside grandma's bedroom, a large black button. Sophie does not go into grandma's room but goes to mum and dad's bedroom to see if they are all right. They are fine tucked up in bed.

Sophie goes into the wardrobe and finds a safe. She realises it's the safe that has her slingshot in it. There is a note on top of the safe saying what the password is. The password is in Nan's bedroom. She runs downstairs going into her Nan's bedroom. When she goes into nans bedroom she finds the bunny on Nan's bed with the sling shot. She runs outside grabbing sticks and rocks and string. She ends up in the garage where she makes the slingshot. She runs back inside to shoot the bunny but the bunny fights back.

The bunny ends up giving up and she shoots him one last time. She leaves the bunny there in the kitchen then goes back to bed.

Was it a dream or not?